

LEICESTER SKETCH CLUB

Meet the Artists / Informal Demos

Sat 6th Feb 2016 (10am- 1pm) Free

Sock Gallery Loughborough Town Hall, Market Place, Loughborough, LE11 3EB
A chance to meet members and pick up tips/ techniques. Refreshments available.
Exhibition runs until 19th March 2016. All welcome.

iPad and a selection of sketchbooks

Vivien Blackburn uses the iPad and Photoshop on a PC to sketch, manipulate, change and combine imported sketches with digital painting, to work around ideas: an electronic sketchbook.
vivienblackburn.com/welcome.html

iPad

Helen Newton is a Leicester based artist and designer who uses Brushes (an iPad application) to create and work with digital paintings and designs. She will demonstrate the versatility and scope of iPad painting as a medium for design and illustration.
www.helennewtonartist.co.uk

Charcoal

Brigitte Thomas will demonstrate the inexpensive and versatile medium of vine charcoal - looking at tone, weight of line and subtraction techniques. She is attending Newlyn School of Art.
Email: brigitthomasartist@outlook.com

Oil

Lisa Timmerman (originally trained at Loughborough Art College's art foundation course) will demonstrate portrait painting and painting roses in oils, both of which can be seen on her website. Lisa offers painting lessons in oils and acrylics from her studio and gallery in Foxton near Market Harborough. www.lisatimmerman.co.uk

Pen and wash

Alan Willey will demonstrate pen and wash techniques suitable for making quick on-the-spot sketches, which can then be used as a basis for more finished work. Examples of this technique can be found in the sketchbook gallery of his website: www.alanwilley.com

